THE CITY OF AUBURN is proud to host "The President's Own" United States Marine Band - This is a rare and exciting opportunity to see what TIME Magazine has said is, "... a band judged by experts to be the best the world has ever produced." Established by an Act of Congress in 1798, the Marine Band is America's oldest professional musical organization. Its primary mission is unique—to provide music for the President of the United States and the Commandant of the United States Marine Corps. Free tickets (limit 4) are only available in person through Auburn Parks, Arts & Recreation, 910 Ninth St. SE, Auburn, on the north end of the Les Gove Community Campus. Hours of operation: Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm. Remaining available tickets will be available at the door, one hour prior to the concert. For information call 253-931-3043 or visit the city website at http://www.auburnwa.gov/community/arts_entertainment.

Thursday, October 8 at 6:00 pm

"REACHING OUT FAIR" The public is invited to attend the eleventh annual "Reaching Out Fair," co-hosted by the Auburn School District, the Cities of Auburn, Algona and Pacific, Green River Community College and the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, the evening focuses on how to keep children and youth safe. A "resource information fair" will be available from 6-7 p.m. Resources from various organizations such as Auburn Parks and Recreation, YMCA and Auburn Youth Resources will be shared with the community. The information fair is specifically geared toward middle school students. They are encouraged to attend to learn more about the resources available to them, as well as to be entered into a drawing to win one of three $100 Supermall gift certificates. Free pizza, juice and cookies will be provided. After the resource information fair, the community is in for a treat, as student presenters show off their talent and share testimonials about individuals who have made a difference in their lives. This part of the event highlights student success and is intended to communicate that all children can make an impact in their homes, schools and communities. The live finale includes a hip-hop dance performance by the Fab-5, a local organization dedicated to provide youth a safe place to develop their talents within the hip-hop culture. For more information contact Amy Spence, public information officer, at (253) 931-4713.

Saturday, October 10 at 7:30 pm and Sunday, October 11 at 2:30 pm

THE AUBURN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA presents "Sound the Trumpets". The sound of trumpets will be in everyone's mind with Jerry Oram's appearance as the soloist in a boisterous concerto by Armenian composer Alexander Arutiunian. Jerry has been our principal trumpet since the orchestra was founded in 1997. Dvorak's tuneful Symphony No. 8 concludes this program, also with a blaze of trumpets! Three talented high school musicians will join the Auburn Symphony for this program. Tickets: $20 - $25. To purchase tickets visit the Symphony website at www.auburnsymphony.org, call the Symphony office at 253-939-8509 or send a check to Auburn Symphony, PO Box 2186, Auburn, WA 98071.
