Student Bulletin

March 14th, 2023

Good Morning West Auburn!
Please Stand for the Pledge of Allegiance...

IMPORTANT

PDA IN CLASSROOMS

As a reminder, the policy regarding PDA is: Public displays of affection are frequently embarrassing or offensive to adults and students. Inappropriate displays of affection are not allowed. Students failing to respect this policy will receive disciplinary consequences up to and including being suspension.

In order to clarify this, we are providing the following guidelines for what is NOT ok in regard to PDA in classrooms.

Public Displays of Affection – Classroom Guidelines

- No sitting on laps
- No legs or hands or heads on laps
- No cuddling
- No kissing
- No extended hugs

* The list is not all encompassing. Any other common-sense behavior that is not school appropriate should also be included.

It is our expectation that teachers hold students accountable to this in their classrooms. If students fail to comply, they will be referred to administration.
